how to enter

No kit is needed! Submit your entry in a standard-sized (no larger than 10 x 13 inches) three-ring binder with end pockets. Enclose the following items in the order noted:

- This entry form completed and enclosed in a standard-sized plain white envelope tucked into the front pocket of the binder, along with the appropriate entry fee. Do not reveal your firm's identity on any materials except this form.
- A brief description of your project, including client objectives, design program, square footage, budget if available, and date of occupancy (important!) typed on a single sheet of paper and enclosed in a clear plastic binder page. If you are submitting student work, indicate the school and assignment.
- A floor plan no larger than 8 x 10 inches, enclosed in a clear binder page.
- No more than ten 8 x 10 color photos (or in the case of student/conceptual work, two-dimensional renderings) of your project, each enclosed in a clear binder page. Do not send slides with binders.

fees

Entry fees are $175 for the first project submitted and $150 for each subsequent project. (For design school students or Class of 2005 graduates who submit student work in Category 14, the fee is $50 per project.) Please submit fee with entry and make checks payable to Contract.

the jury

A panel of distinguished industry professionals will review the entries and select category winners on the basis of aesthetics, design creativity, function, and satisfaction of client's objectives.

if you win

You and your client will be honored at the 27th Annual Interiors Awards Breakfast in New York City in January 2006, and your project will be published in the January 2006 Design Awards issue of Contract magazine.

Note: Winners will be notified by mid-October, and will be asked to provide professional-quality transparencies or high resolution electronic images of their projects for publication and use at the Annual Interiors Awards Breakfast in January 2006. Non-winning entries will be returned only if accompanied by a postage-paid envelope.
